About Becky & the blog...

Mum, friend, digital marketer and published writer - Becky Barnes first hit the blogging world back in 2011 under the pseudonym 'Mrs BeBe'. Specialising in plus size fashion the blog has since grown to incorporate travel, food, lifestyle and opinion posts. Her honest and candid blog posts and social channels have her readers coming back time after time.

Becky has worked with some of the UK's biggest brand; she frequently appears on opinion panels at events and on TV such as ITV's This Morning and Lorraine. Her work has featured in Cosmopolitan, HuffPost and Vintage Life.

Becky is your typical northern lass. Genuine, funny and just a little bit cheeky.
